

Peljesac, land plot

14ha in future T2 zone

140.000sqm land plot for tourist development. Includes long stretch of northern coast, while more land is possible to acquire so that property would exit on the sea on both sides. Two buying options are available. More information available on request..

At the moment, the land plot is agricultural. It can be used for building several villas. Still, main attraction of this property is in future zoning plans which are currently beign developed and would rezone the property for tourist T2 zone.
